

PAYROLL HAS THE POWER

Want to Celebrate NPW in Your Office?

Each September, National Payroll Week celebrates the contributions of payroll professionals. Whether you work in payroll, or another department, you can (and should) celebrate the contribution of payroll to your workplace.

Decorate: Pull out those streamers and balloons? It's time to get your office into the festive spirit! Hand posters, banners and decorations around the payroll department or lunchroom. Download and print the CPA's PAYROLL HAS THE POWER poster to hang in your workplace.

Participate: Take a photo and share it on twitter with the hashtag #HappyNPW to be entered into the CPA's photo contest. We're giving away two prizes of lunch for your office! And send your photos to dialogue@payroll.ca with a description to have your organization featured in an upcoming issue of DIALOGUE magazine!

Plan: Hone your hosting skills. Plan a lunch or a party for colleagues to get together during NPW. This can be as simple as inviting colleagues together for a brief period of time for doughnuts or ice cream!

Thank: Tell your payroll department or coworkers that you appreciate the work they do. Download and print the CPA's NPW 'Thank You' cards to give to someone at your work.

Share: Take pictures of your NPW celebrations and share them on your organization's social media, intranet or website. Demonstrate that you value the work being done by payroll.

Recognize: Provide formal or informal recognition to someone in your payroll department. This can be in the form of a gift, a letter or a simple conversation.

Learn: Share the CPA's payroll metrics, facts and jokes with your colleagues to help get them learning and engaging with payroll at your organization.
