[YOUR ORGANIZATION'S NAME] is proud to announce that we have officially signed the Declaration for Payroll. Offered through the National Payroll Institute, the Declaration for Payroll is comprised of a set of eight principles that, in combination, help a business manage payroll with the professionalism that employees deserve.

And so, we have proudly and willingly signed on. Because you, our team, deserve to have your payroll handled as professionally as possible. This is a commitment we make to you, and one we take seriously. If you're interested in learning more about The Declaration for Payroll, you can visit payroll.ca/declaration and find us on the registry of payroll-forward organizations.
